LFI may at any time, deny the trade of a firearm for any reason. LFI will make an offer of trade value based on the current condition of the firearm being evaluated, this amount can change at any time. All trade value amounts will be applied to another firearm or merchandise purchase at the time of trade, if the trade amount exceeds the final transaction amount whatever amount remains will be put onto an LFI store merchandise gift card. If there is no firearm or merchandise purchase at the time of trade, the full amount will be put onto an LFI merchandise card. The trade amount will not be given in cash, credit card, or check form. On a case-by-case basis LFI may make arrangements to change the form of payment.

Once the trade has been finalized the firearm will become property of LFI and will be acquired into LFI's bound book. Therefore, after any duration of time, in order to regain ownership of the firearm there must be a completed and approved background check (ATF form 4473) to proceed with the purchase the firearm.
